My eyes are al - ways, al - ways on the Lord.

for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long.

according to your steadfast love remember me,
for your goodness sake, O Lord!

6. Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.

HOMILY be seated

PROFESSION OF FAITH stand

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
all bow during the next two lines
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered, died, and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Music Notes

The Anthem at the Preparation of the Gifts is O Lamb of God by Russell G. Wichmann (1912-1987). Dr. Wichmann was for some 51 years the Organist and Director of Music at the famed Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA. He also served as Head of the Music Department and Professor of Music at Chatham College and was the first University Organist at the Heinz Memorial Chapel, on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. He was a dear friend of Cathedral Basilica Director of Music and Organist, Dr. John A. Romeri.

At the Distribution of Holy Communion the choir will sing the motet Panis Angelicus. The more familiar setting of this text is by the famous French Organist and Composer César Franck. The composition you will hear today is by another great Frenchman, Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921). Showing Mozartian precocity as both a pianist and composer, Saint-Saens entered the Paris Conservatory in 1848. His dazzling gifts won him the admiration of Gounod, Rossini, Berlioz, and Franz Liszt, who hailed him as the world's greatest organist. He was organist at the Madeleine from 1857-1875. A virtuoso pianist, he excelled in performing Mozart, and was praised for the purity and grace of his playing. Similarly French characteristics of his conservative musical style - neat proportions, clarity, polished expression, elegant line - reside in his best compositions, the classically orientated sonatas (especially the first each for violin and cello), chamber music (Piano Quartet op.41), symphonies (no.3, the 'Organ' Symphony, 1886) and concertos (no.4 for piano, no.3 for violin).
